FAQs

Why is the County conducting a community workshop?

The County is conducting a workshop to address the concerns expressed by neighborhood stakeholders. The goal is to build a distinct sense of character and community that respects the history of the neighborhood.

Is development being proposed?

No, the purpose of this workshop is not to discuss any current development proposal.

What is a community workshop?

A workshop is an interactive forum to both share information and receive input from all stakeholders in your community.

How will this workshop be conducted?

County staff will deliver a brief presentation with updates about the neighborhood; participants will then engage in an interactive planning exercise to develop rules for future development.

What happens next?

Staff will use community input to develop recommendations for policy and code changes, as appropriate. Participants will continue to receive updates from staff regarding progress.

What if I can't attend?

Please email or call the contacts on this notice, we will be sure to answer questions, gather input, and send updates as they occur.
