In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that, an exemption noted above may apply, the County hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals, and welfare):

The purpose of this Ordinance is to formally repeal all ordinances associated with the previous authorization of the Environmental Land Conservation Program (SAVE). With the approval of the SAVE renewal in a November 2024 referendum, these ordinances establishing the initial phase are no longer required and their repeal will allow the County to implement the next phase.

2. Estimate of direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the County:

This Ordinance will have no impact on private, for-profit, or businesses in the County as these services are for the sole purpose of conservation.

3. Estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur:

This Ordinance has no direct compliance costs.

4. Any new charge or fee imposed on businesses by the proposed ordinance:

This Ordinance does not impose any fees.

5. Estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs:

This Ordinance has no regulatory costs or other costs anticipated.

6. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

No businesses will be impacted by this Ordinance.

7. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):
